Catalogue

Brick by Brick

DUPLO and LEGO® toys are designed for children of all ages – from babies through to teenagers.

There are many different sets in the range, yet all are based on the same idea: to allow children to make their own toys, over and over again. DUPLO bricks and LEGO bricks can be built together. As children grow older and begin building with LEGO bricks, their DUPLO bricks still remain an important part of their collection. This is because they can build DUPLO bricks into their new LEGO models, and therefore always keep expanding their toy system.

Maximum temperature for storage and washing. (Electric parts not washable.)

LEGO LEGOLAND

Castle

Great medieval stories to be created. Models have working details such as drawbridges, catapults and siege towers for developing your own exciting adventures.

Space

The vast unknown areas of this universe are waiting to be discovered. Command your own exploration with the help of androids, starships and rocket launchers. Some models have flashing lights and space sirens.

Town

Why not be the town planner of your own town? Complete towns with streets, houses, police, stations, shops, airports, etc., waiting to be built.

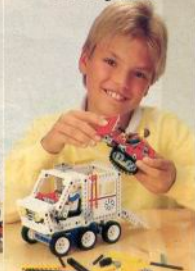

6-14 years

LEGO Trains

The LEGO® train series consists of a push train without motor, a 4.5 V battery train and 12 V electric trains. Also, there are electric signals, remote controls and other sets to extend your train system.

7-16 years

LEGO Technic

For the technically minded, there are many special elements such as gears, pistons and motors, to allow you to build detailed working models with realistic technical functions.

Active toys - for active children

A baby needs a special toy to stimulate his or her senses. The DUPLO series offers everything from safe rattles in bright, appealing colours to a complete learning and building centre, with many shapes and sounds to investigate. The telephone even has functions that Graham Bell could not have imagined.

So many combinations with DUPLO bricks

The great advantage of DUPLO sets is that all the bricks fit together. Therefore your child can design and build his or her own toys over and over again.

New 1987 - Available from August.

From 2-5 years

It houses the imagination

Unlike ready made dollhouses this is a real playhouse. You can design and build your very own house. The house can be changed and rebuilt from the very same bricks and pieces, as many times as you want. This way you never get bored with the same house because you can always build another.

BASIC

The toy system that grows with your child

LEGO® Basic has been designed to grow with your child. There are building sets available in the 3+, 5+ and 7+ age groups. As your child progresses from one age group to the next, the sets become a little more advanced, offering more detailed and realistic building. LEGO Basic bricks can be used with bricks from other LEGO lines. What fun to have a toy that can be changed every day!

LEGO® Educational Sets for active learning

In pre-schools, schools and colleges all over the world LEGO® Educational Sets play an important role in children's development. Sets include numbers, letters and mosaics for mathematics and language development, basic building sets for theme work, and technical sets that enable children to explore scientific principles. Comprehensive teachers' guides and pupil workcards are also available.
