THE ULTIMATE TREAT FOR COMIC BOOK FANS

More than 80 years after his debut, Batman™ is still the number one DC super hero. We love to weave lots of storytelling into our LEGO® Art models, and the acclaimed BATMAN: HUSH series (2002–2003) is not only a great story, but also a testament to how art and storytelling can merge into something truly special. That's why we're so excited to present this set based on original new artwork from award-winning BATMAN: HUSH artists, and legends in their own rights, Jim Lee, Publisher and Chief Creative Officer of DC, and Alex Sinclair, Colourist extraordinaire.

IORELLA GROVES, LEGO® Design Lead

FROM SKETCH TO FINAL ARTWORK

Jim Lee's drawings with Alex Sinclair's beautiful colouring was so vibrant and fun to work with. We worked closely together to capture their signature strokes and create a total of five unique images – with only 16 colours! When using software to transform images into pixels, some areas will be lost in translation due to the number of pixels available. To me, the fun, artistic part of the design process is to create the perfect illusion of curves and depth. It's so satisfying to achieve the right contouring, focal points, contrasts, atmosphere, intimacy and drama in the picture.

THE INSPIRATION BEHIND THE LEGO® ART JIM LEE BATMAN™ COLLECTION

Jim Lee started reading Batman™ comics at the library at age 10. While he was in university, the four-issue comic book miniseries BATMAN: THE DARK KNIGHT RETURNS was released and inspired him to pursue a career in the comics industry. For more than 30 years now, his award-winning illustrations have helped shape the Batman story for new generations of fans.
