WHO YOU GONNA CALL?

It was a brilliantly simple and crazy concept. Unleash an enormous supernatural power upon the city of New York, call upon the finest comedians in Hollywood, throw in some groundbreaking special effects and mix in a talented director to help give us one of Hollywood's classic movies. These were the building blocks of the 1984 smash hit movie Ghostbusters, and the world is still talking about it today.

Dr. Peter Venkman, Dr. Ray Stantz and Dr. Egon Spengler are researchers on paranormal activity, working at Columbia University, but their funding is cut since their research seems to be going nowhere. But when strange incidents involving spooks and spectres begin to happen all over New York, the guys hit upon a great idea - to form a paranormal detection and elimination service called Ghostbusters.

To get around New York City they equip an old ambulance with all their gear and gadgets. This became the iconic Ecto-1! Their first assignment is to remove the gluttonous apparition known as Slimer from the fancy Sedgewick Hotel Ballroom. After successfully completing the job - and destroying most of the beautiful room in the process - their reputation grows and their business really takes off. So much so that they hire their fourth member to join the Ghostbusters: Winston Zeddemore.

Their abilities are put to the ultimate test when the evil being Zuul opens a portal and lets the supreme evil Gozer into our world. Gozer takes the form of the giant Stay Puft Marshmallow Man and attacks the team. To defeat the giant and save New York they cross the streams of their proton packs (something Egon told them to never do) creating one incredibly powerful energy beam that shoots it back into the portal. The resulting explosion destroys both Gozer and the portal and saves New York City from imminent destruction... But leaves a large part of it covered in melted marshmallow.

FIRE STATION HQ

The now iconic Ghostbusters headquarters is located in an old and dusty New York fire station. Situated in the 'rough part of town' and having seen better days, the station was not in the best condition when Egon, Peter and Ray went to see it. Both Peter and Egon hoped to use the condition of the building to their advantage and get it for a much lower price. However, Ray's instant love for the building and the functioning fireman's pole sealed the deal... this was to be their new home.

It housed not only the Ghostbusters team themselves, but the HQ was also where Ecto-1 was built and where the laser containment unit (home to many a captured ghost) was kept.

The Ghostbusters live, work, eat, sleep and relax in the fire station, just like the firefighters before them. The calm is only broken when Janine hits the alarm button and the bell starts ringing! "WE GOT ONE!!"

The guys spring into action, leaping out of bed, the shower, the lab or kitchen and sliding down the fireman's pole (Ray's favourite part) to their lockers. Here they can get their overalls on, jump into Ecto-1 and race off into action.

Once back at HQ with a freshly trapped ghost, it's off to the basement where the containment unit is housed. Here the traps are loaded into the laser containment grid ensuring the ghosts can never get out again... Unless somebody turns off the power.

Wen ruft ihr da?

Es war eine brillant einfache und verrückte Idee. Lass eine enorme übernatürliche Kraft auf New York City los, nimm die erlesensten Komiker aus Hollywood, gib einige bahnbrechende Spezialeffekte hinzu und runde diese Mischung mit einem der talentiertesten Regisseure ab, um einen echten Hollywood-Klassiker abzuliefern. Aus all diesen Bausteinen setzte sich der Riesenkinohit Ghostbusters aus dem Jahr 1984 zusammen, über den die Welt noch heute spricht.

Dr. Peter Venkman, Dr. Ray Stantz und Dr. Egon Spengler erforschen an der Columbia University paranormale Aktivitäten, doch ihr Budget wird gestrichen, weil ihre Forschung keinerlei Ergebnisse zu liefern scheint. Doch als sich dann überall in New York seltsame Vorfälle mit spukenden Geistern und Gespenstern ereignen, haben die Forscher einen grandiosen Einfall – nämlich eine Agentur namens Ghostbusters zu gründen, die paranormale Phänomene entdeckt und eliminiert.

Um sich in New York City frei bewegen zu können, statten die drei einen alten Krankenwagen mit all ihrer Ausrüstung und ihren Geräten aus. Aus diesem Krankenwagen wurde dann der legendäre Ecto-1! Ihr erster Auftrag führt sie in den Ballsaal des schicken Sedgewick Hotel, um diesen von einer gefräßigen Erscheinung namens Slimer zu befreien. Durch die erfolgreiche Erledigung dieses Jobs – in dessen Verlauf der wunderschöne Ballsaal größtenteils zu Bruch ging – haben sie sich einen guten Ruf erworben, sodass ihre Agentur richtig in Schwung kommt. Und angesichts dieses Erfolgs stellen sie noch einen weiteren Geisterjäger ein, der die Ghostbusters unterstützen soll: Winston Zeddemore.

Ihre Fähigkeiten werden auf eine ernsthafte Probe gestellt, als die böse Kreatur Zuul ein Portal öffnet, um den übermächtigen und bösen Gozer auf unsere Welt loszulassen. Für den Angriff auf das Team nimmt Gozer die Gestalt des riesigen Marshmallow Man an. Um diesen Giganten zu besiegen und New York zu retten, lassen sie die Energiestrahlen ihrer Protonen-Packs kreuzen (was sie laut Egon niemals hätten tun dürfen). So erzeugen sie einen unfassbar starken Energiestrahle, der das Monster in das Portal zurückwirft. Die daraus resultierende Explosion vernichtet sowohl Gozer als auch das Portal, sodass New York City der drohenden Zerstörung entgeht. Allerdings sind nun weite Teile der Stadt von einer zerlaufenen Marshmallow-Masse bedeckt.

Ghostbusters-Hauptquartier in der Feuerwache

Das heute legendäre Ghostbusters-Hauptquartier befindet sich in einer staubigen alten New Yorker Feuerwache. Die in einem rauen Viertel der Stadt gelegene Feuerwache hatte schon bessere Tage gesehen und präsentierte sich nicht gerade im besten Zustand, als Egon, Peter und Ray sie in Augenschein nahmen. Peter und Egon hofften, aus dem Zustand des Gebäudes Kapital schlagen und den Preis deutlich drücken zu können. Doch das Gebäude und die funktionstüchtige Rutschstange hatten es Ray sofort angetan und die Entscheidung vorweggenommen – diese Feuerwache sollte ihr neues Zuhause werden.

In dem Hauptquartier war nicht nur das Geisterjäger-Team selbst untergebracht, dort wurde auch der Ecto-1 gebaut und es beherbergte die Laserverwahrungseinheit (in dem zahlreiche gefangene Geister ihr neues Zuhause fanden).

Die Ghostbusters wohnen, arbeiten, schlafen und relaxen in der Feuerwache – genau wie es die Feuerwehrmänner vor ihnen getan hatten. Die Ruhe hat jedoch ein jähes Ende, als Janine den Alarmknopf drückt und die Feuerglocke ertönt! „WIR HABEN EINEN!!“

Die Geisterjäger werden sofort aktiv und springen aus dem Bett, der Dusche, dem Labor oder der Küche und gleiten die Rutschstange hinab (Rays Lieblingsbetätigung) zu ihren Spinden. Hier legen sie ihre Overalls an, springen in den Ecto-1 und düsen los in den Einsatz.

Sobald sie dann mit einem frisch gefangenen Geist im Gepäck wieder im Hauptquartier eintreffen, geht es sofort in den Keller, wo sich die Sicherheitsverwahrungseinheit befindet. Dort werden die Fallen in die lasergesicherte Zelle geladen, um sicherzustellen, dass die Geister niemals entkommen können ... Außer jemand schaltet den Strom ab.

Qui c'est qu'on appelle ?

C'était un concept brillamment simple et fou. Lâchez une énorme puissance surnaturelle sur la ville de New York, appelez les meilleurs comédiens d'Hollywood, ajoutez quelques effets spéciaux de pointe et un réalisateur de talent pour créer l'un des films classiques d'Hollywood. Les éléments clés du film culte de 1984, SOS Fantômes, dont le monde parle encore aujourd'hui.

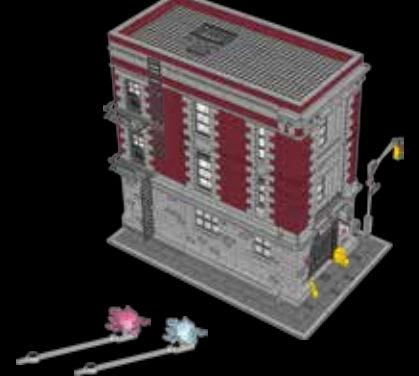

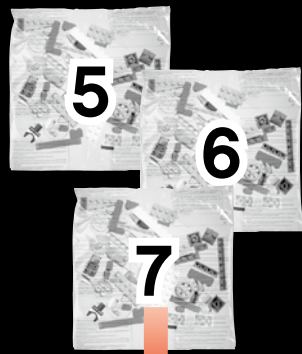

Dr. Peter Venkman, Dr. Ray Stantz et Dr. Egon Spengler sont des chercheurs en phénomènes paranormaux, travaillant à l'université de Columbia de New York, cependant leur financement est retiré car leurs recherches ne semblent mener nulle part. Lorsque d'étranges incidents impliquant des fantômes et des spectres commencent à se produire dans tout New York, les chercheurs ont une idée géniale : former un service de détection et d'élimination paranormale appelé SOS Fantômes.

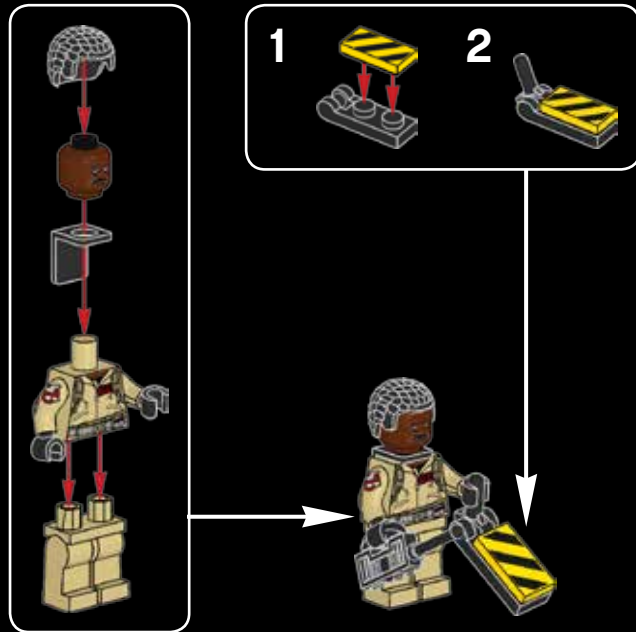

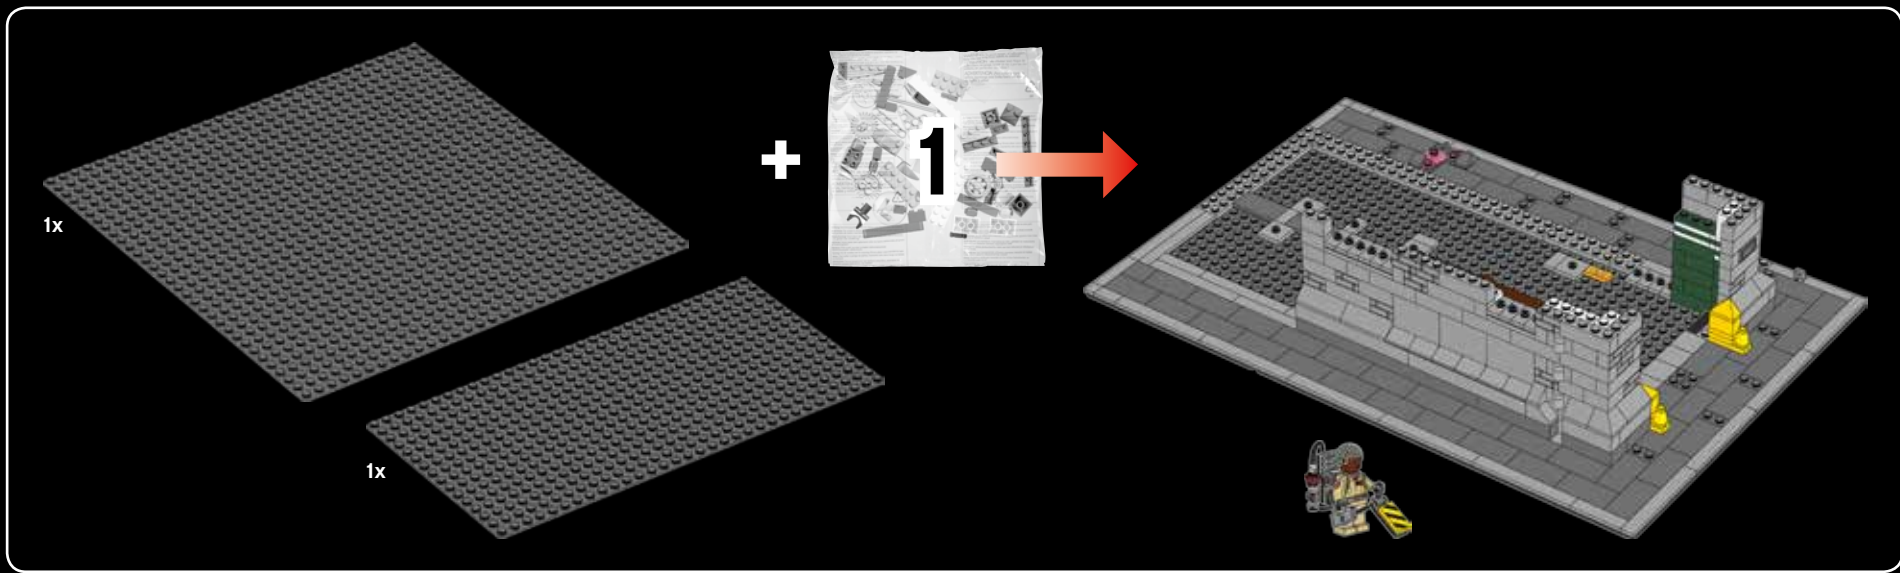

Pour circuler dans New York, ils équipent une vieille ambulance avec tout leur matériel et leurs gadgets. C'est ainsi que naquit la célèbre Ecto-1 ! Leur première mission est de faire disparaître une apparition gluante appelée Bouffe-tout de l'élégante salle de bal de l'hôtel Sedgewick. Après avoir réussi leur mission, et pratiquement détruit la magnifique salle de bal au passage, leur réputation croît et leur activité démarre vraiment. Leur succès est tel qu'ils engagent un quatrième membre pour SOS Fantômes : Winston Zeddemore.
